

Belmont Primary School Newsletter November 13th 2020

Dear Parents / Carers,

Welcome to the end of another week!

Remembrance

As I am sure you will have expected, the children observed the silence at 11am on Wednesday. I am equally sure that you will not be in the least bit surprised when I say that every single child behaved absolutely impeccably, demonstrating once again what a group of thoughtful and empathetic children we have in the school.

Children In Need

Many thanks to you all for supporting the non uniform day today in aid of Children in Need. Once we have counted all of the donations, we will let you know how much has been raised.

Odd Socks Day

Just a reminder that Odd Socks Day to commemorate Anti Bullying Week is this coming Monday 16th November. If you are interested in finding out a bit more about this, here is the website to look at!

Remember, there are no donations being taken for this.

Parents' Questionnaire

You will be receiving a copy of this and we would be very grateful if you could take the time to complete and return to school via your child's class teacher. Please do be aware that this is not intended merely as a paper exercise. Over the years, we have adjusted our ways of working in response to some of the comments and ideas shared through this medium. Any comments made will be noted and, indeed, responded to. Many thanks in advance.

Attendance

Last week, attendance across the school stood at 99% which included eight classes with 100%.

A short letter this week, but nonetheless, I do like to stay in touch with you all! Wishing you a pleasant weekend,

Yours Sincerely,
