1st May 2026

Dear Parents / Carers,

May already. How did that happen? I don't know about you, but to me, that signifies the official start of Summer Term where the diary seems to become increasingly full. And this week, it has seen a bit of warmth and sunshine, too. Hopefully a sign of things to come (and, for those of you who work in the farming community, we shall hope for a bit of rain too, but maybe during the night if that's OK?).

Year Four Cricket

In keeping with the seasonal theme, the cricket season is now creeping up on us and, for our Year Four children, it has commenced in full! They participated in the school's tournament at Saltburn Cricket Club on Tuesday and only went and won it! This has seen them qualify for the Yorkshire finals which are due to be held in Richmond at a later date. Well done to them and we will, of course, keep you updated on their progress.

Toys

As is always the case when we make a request, you guys have been tremendous in supporting us following last week's letter where we expressed a bit of concern about some of the issues toys being brought into school were causing. We have noticed a drastic decline in the presence of various items and, as such, there have been fewer reported concerns about 'playground disagreements' and distractions in class. Many thanks to you all for your support, as always. It makes a massive difference.

And Finally....

Sadly (or, for some, quite happily!), I still have little to report although I am sure this will change as we get into the 'full swing' of the term. I have heard through the grapevine that there may be a bit of interest in a couple of football matches tomorrow. Not too sure what that is all about but I have no doubt that the interested parties will keep me informed of anything I need to know.....

This weekend's weather report? Well, I am not sure that it is going to be great so I hope that you got the outdoor jobs completed last weekend! Anyway, it's a Bank Holiday. What do you expect?

Wishing you all a pleasant 'long weekend' and see you on Tuesday.

Have a good one!

Yours Sincerely
C. Gibson
